A MESSAGE FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear Fellow Tigers,

As we continue to navigate disruptions and challenges caused by the COVID- 19 pandemic, I want to take a moment to express my gratitude to our community of supporters and reflect on what steers our decision-making during this challenging time.

I truly appreciate the hard work and ingenuity shown by our faculty and staff over the past year. They have worked tirelessly to develop and implement innovative ways to support our students and help sustain their academic progress.

I also want to thank our brightest stars, our students, for being flexible, patient, and resilient under such stressful circumstances.

Together, we are aspiring tool make sense of this unprecedented situation. Our days have been fluid, uncertain, ever-changing, and very demanding. Nevertheless, throughout it all, we have looked to our core values of service, community, inclusion, social responsibility, and accountability to each other as guard rails to guide our decision making.

As president, my top priority remains the health and safety of everyone on our campus by mitigating as much risk as possible. I remain committed to a learning and working environment that maintains safety for our students, faculty, staff, and visitors.

The institution has developed policies and procedures that include intensive and structured safety and health elements to guide us in this new normal. Our readiness plan has taken countless hours to develop, and that plan has evolved as more information about COVID-19 has become available. Suffice to say, there is still much to learn about the novel coronavirus.

With that being said, we remain steadfast, never losing sight of our mission of transforming the lives of those in which we serve.

For that reason, the institution has kept moving forward, and our work has never ended. Classes continued virtually, and plans for capital improvement projects continue to progress. The college's overall operations pivoted to ensure that our students persist on to whatever goals, dreams, and ambitions they might have.

Over the years, we have been affectionately known as the "College that Cares." Since 1949, no obstacle has obstructed our passionate mission- even that of COVID-19.

As developments continue to unfold, we will remain vigilant and will respond to the best o our ability. We will also draw strength from the values and indelible legacies of past Coahomans of times past.

I look forward to seeing you on campus again soon. In the meantime, we will navigate through this by working together, looking out for each other, and lifting each other up. I am humbled to be your presient, and I a proud to serve this great institution.

Valmadge T. Towner

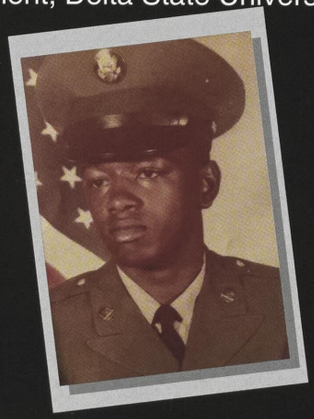
a life of SERVICE

Willie Edwards Blacker was born on January 16, 1957. He was the ninth and last child of the late Claude and Carrie Blocker. Willie confessed Christ at an early age, guided by his mother who loved the Lord with all her heart.

Willie was married to Patricia Holmes and they were proud parents of three daughters. He was a graduate of Coahoma County High School and Delta State University, where he received a Bachelor of Science in Criminal Justice. Willie was also a proud alum of Coahoma Community College, where he served as a member of the Board of Trustees. Willie worked in law enforcement for many years, some of his time was spent on the City of Shelby's Police Department, Delta State University and Bolivar County's Sheriff Department.



A career change came for Willie in the early 90's, which brought him to the United States Postal Service. Willie was employed with the Postal Service for 30 years, he became Postmaster in June 2000, becoming the first black Postmaster in the City of Shelby.

Willie had an extraordinary sense of humor and a special infinity for his six grandchildren. He was a man that would help anybody. Although Shelby did not have street delivery, he would often take mail to the sick and shut in or to anybody who could not make it to the Post Office.

Orientation gives new students a head start on the college experience. It is a fun, comprehensive opportunity designed specifically for the first-time freshman, to provide information to ease the transition into college life and introduce the college's goals, mission, policies, admission requirements, programs of study and life long friends.

This year, we have to plan for the tradition of orientation looking... well, untraditional due to COVID-19. For most institutions, that means going virtual. We had to be very innovative and it was was a bit challenging to say the least, but we more than managed to have an informative, as well as, an enjoyable event.We actually had record attendance! .....We didnt see that coming!

Schedule of Events:

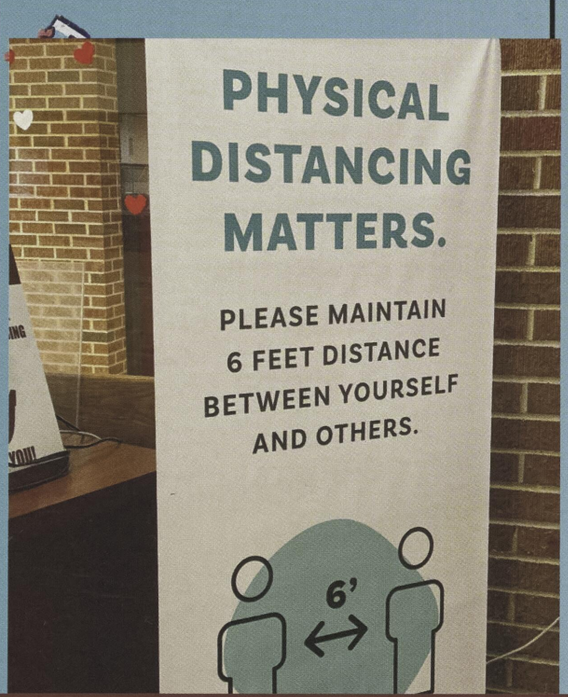
BEGINNING

Jan. 20, 2020
The first confirmed U.S. case of what will soon be named COVID-19 occurs in Snohomish County, Washington. From that moment, the numbers began to grow, and cases eventually spread to every county in the U.S. By the end of the year, more than 20 million people in the U.S. had been infected and more than 346,000 people had died.

Feb. 11, 2020
The World Health Organization officially names the disease caused by the new coronavirus strain COVID-19. The "CO" stands for corona, the "VI" for virus, the "D" stands for disease and the number 19 stands for the year it first appeared, 2019.

March 19, 2020
California becomes the first state to mandate a statewide stay-at-home order. While the order was in place, residents were required to avoid going out unless necessary, and businesses such as restaurants were only allowed to host outdoor diners.

March 27, 2020
President Donald Trump signs the CARES Act into law. The $2.2 trillion stimulus bill included one-time payments of $1,200 to most Americans, increased unemployment benefits, put a freeze on evictions and provided forgivable loans to small businesses.



SPREAD

May 27, 2020
Four months after it first appeared in the United States, the number of U.S. deaths from COVID-19 passes 100,000. More than 1.6 million cases were confirmed in the U.S.

July 6, 2020
Contrary to previous World Health Organization recommendations, hundreds of scientists pressure WHO to revise recommendations, saying the virus can be spread via airborne particles.

Oct. 2, 2020
President Donald Trump and First Lady Melania Trump test positive for COVID-19. With just a month before the presidential election, it changed debate plans for Trump and his opponent, former Vice President Joe Biden. The Trumps recovered from the virus and did not report any long-term effects.

Oct. 19, 2020
Dr. Anthony Fauci, the nation's leading infectious disease expert, shares information about the airborne spread of COVID-19 during a virtual event hosted by the National Academy of Medicine. During his presentation, he explained that the coronavirus has spread by respiratory droplets, but also had the potential for airborne spread.

Nov. 27, 2020
The U.S. doubles the grim milestone set just three weeks earlier when it reports 200,000 new cases in a single day.

Dec. 29, 2020
Colorado officials confirm the first U.S. case of a more contagious coronavirus strain. The strain was first discovered in the United Kingdom, but soon spread to several states and countries.

Jan. 26, 2021

Aug. 28, 2020 The FDA grants emergency use authorization to a rapid COVID-19 test that can deliver results in minutes rather than days.

Dec. 27, 2020
President Donald Trump signs a $900 billion COVID relief package. This second stimulus package included direct stimulus payments of $600 to most Americans, loans for small businesses, vaccine funding and grants for live entertainment venues. This package drew some criticism because the direct payments were less than many had called for and the unemployment benefits of $300 per month were only half of what the previous stimulus bill provided.

The Biden administration introduces a $1.9 trillion economic relief package, which would include $1,400 direct payments to most Americans and significant state and local aid. Republicans opposed the price tag, and a group of 10 Senate Republicans met with President Biden to suggest a scaled down $600 million version.

Jan. 20, 2021
For his first executive order, newly sworn-in President Joe Biden issues mandates that masks be worn on federal property and in all public transit systems traveling between states. The order also encouraged state and local officials to implement their own mask mandates.

June 4, 2020
The Centers for Disease Control retracts two studies that suggest hydroxychloroquine may be useful in combating COVID-19. The WHO announced it will stop testing the drug as treatment for COVID-19 on June 18, as data showed it did not reduce mortality.

The FDA grants emergency usage approval for convalescent plasma to help with recovery. Plasma from patients who had recovered from COVID-19 could be donated to some patients fighting the virus.

Total Objection. President Trump's legal team files numerous cases in six swing states while Trump refuses to concede the election, despite state certifications. They alleged illegal votes were included in Biden's totals, but most cases were dismissed for lack of evidence. The General Services Administration (GSA) ascertained Biden's win in late November, which allowed for a formal transition of power. Photo credit: Newscom

Postal Tides. A record 65 million voters choose the convenience and safety of mail-in voting offered during the pandemic. Between mail-in and early voting, 73% of the total 2016 vote was cast before Election Day 2020. Some states even took the controversial initiative to mail ballots to all registered voters. Photo credits: Newscom and Stephanie Streicher

First and Second Firsts. The new first and second families represent the changing political landscape. First Lady Dr. Jill Biden became the first First Lady to work in a non-government job as she continued her teaching career, while President Joe Biden was the oldest person ever elected president. They brought with them Major, the White House's first dog adopted from a shelter. Vice President Kamala Harris was the first woman and the first South Asian and Black vice president, and Second Gentleman Doug Emhoff was the first person to ever hold the title, as well as the first Jewish person in the role. He and Harris were also the first biracial couple elected to the office. Photo credits: Newscom

For this project, you will need Microsoft Excel to complete this exercise. If you don't have Microsoft Excel on your computer, follow the directions found here: Installing Office 365 for Students.
You will also need to download the following data file: Moneyball.xlsx
Follow the directions below after you have downloaded the data file above. Provide all answers in a Microsoft Word document called "Chapter 6 Project Answers." Add your initials to the end of the file name.
1. Identify the outliers in both leagues (i.e., the teams that have a total number of wins far from the rest of the teams in their league).
2. Discuss why the discrepancy in variability between the performance of NYM and the performance of TEX didn't cause a similar discrepancy in their respective leagues.
3. Based on historical data, the probability that in a given year the NYM will make the playoffs is p = 7/47 = 0.149. Let X be the discrete random variable that gives the total number of Playoffs made by NYM in the last 20 years, i.e., from 1993 to 2012.
a. Assume that the outcomes for the NYM in these years are unknown for us. Also assume that the outcome in any of the years is independent of the outcome in any other year. Under these assumptions, what would be the distribution of X? Why?
b. What is the probability that the total number of playoffs made by NYM during this 20-year period is exactly three?
c. What is the probability that the total number of playoffs made by NYM is at most 3?

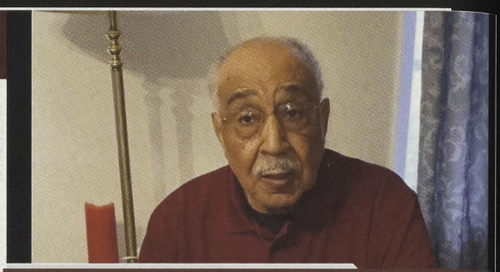
"GIVING BACK TO MOVE FORWARD" TELETHON



Mr. Charles F. Reid, CCC Foundation Executive Director

10:00 am - 4:00 pm | Virtual

Join us as we solidify our theme, "Coahoma Forever" and help support students by raising funds to supplement the financial needs of students at Coahoma Community College. This CCC Foundation event will replace our usual "Presidential Gala."

This event will be live-streamed from campus, everyone is invited to tune in and enjoy live entertainment, words of motivation, and inspiration from past and current Tigers and friends as we share in an evening of giving to our Dear Ole College Home.

This event will see who can be the biggest Giver. Gifts of $1 and beyond will be accepted. Let's get classes, community organizations, alumni, businesses, and yes, faculty, staff, and students in the mindset of giving back to CCC.

The proceeds are used to assist students in completing their programs of study in the Academic, Career-Technical and Health Sciences at CCC. The funds raised will also support efforts in retaining students until they successfully complete their course of study.

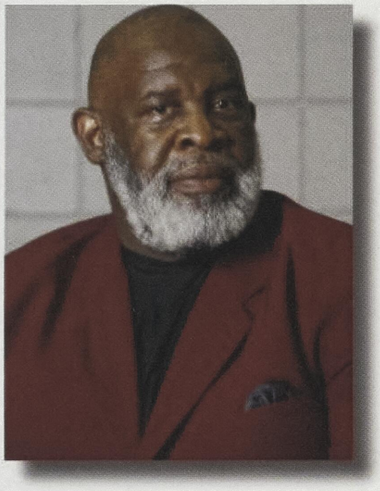
MESSAGE FROM THE NATIONAL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION PRESIDENT



Dear Alumni and Valued Friends:

Recent events stemming from the novel coronavirus—or COVID-19—pandemic are casting a wide shadow over normal routines. We at the Alumni Association recognize that these fast-unfolding events are creating concern and uncertainty for all of us.

As such, we want to make you aware of our full support of our beloved Coahoma in these uncertain times.

As the president of the Alumni Association, I would like to share with you the many ways you can be involved and support the wonderful opportunities available through the Alumni Association.

Whether you make a monetary donation or donate your time, the support of fellow and future alums will help us all and enable Coahoma to continue on as the great educational institution it is today. The Alumni Association offers opportunities for fellowship and allows you to reconnect with classmates. This is your Alumni Association, and we are honored to represent you.

In order to better connect with our extensive network of Tigers and to support you all in better connecting with each other, we are also enhancing our alumni engagement opportunities. Soon, in conjunction with the College, we are launching an alumni online network that will allow Tigers to connect over their passions no matter where they live. To make sure you are receiving our alumni communications, please visit coahomacc.edu/alumni.

As we navigate through these difficult times, I encourage each one of us to support one another, listen with a heart to hear, and stand together in unity for the betterment of each other, our communities, and our nation.

I am humbled to serve as your CCCNAA president and want you to know that you are valued and supported. You are each an important part of our CCC family.

Humanitarian of the Year

Jerome Petty

English and Foreign Languages Department

Benoit, Mississippi, native Jerome Petty serves Coahoma Community College as an adjunct instructor of Public Speaking. He has built 21 years of experience educating a varied age range of students in Mississippi and Arkansas. Having dedicated much of his life to advancing the youth, Petty is being honored as Coahoma's 2021 Humanities Teacher of the Year.

Alongside his service to Tiger Nation, he maintains ties with Mississippi Valley State University, where he received his bachelor's in Communication and Media Studies. Petty currently holds the title of director for the MVSU Upward Bound II program and taught theater and English to participants of the program from 2007 until 2012. From 2017 to 2019, he was the academic coordinator. Last year, Petty secured two $10,000 STEM grants for the program, one from the Teaching Through Technologies (T3) Alliance and the other from NASA. The educator is credited for his help in getting a STEM lab, podcast studio, and photography studio funded for Upward Bound II. He has provided guidance to student leaders of the university as an advisor to Mr. MVSU and the Student Government Association.

Petty received his master's in communication studies and theater from Arkansas State University.

An advocate for progressing first-generation scholars from low-income backgrounds, he has collaborated with MVSU on numerous freshman experience and student leadership projects and partnered with Mission Mississippi to give young scholars insight into the world of business.

Petty has served as a music teacher for West Bolivar Elementary School, a Government, Economics, and Law instructor at Leflore County High, and a Public Speaking instructor for Arkansas State University from 2010 until 2012. Multifaceted, he has delivered uplifting messages in motivational speaking engagements for the College, MVSU, and Mississippi Delta-based youth organizations. Out of dedication to serving, he's taken the lead as chair of programs contributing to the growth, knowledge, and survival of young males in underprivileged environments with his fraternity Kappa Alpha Psi.

Now a resident of Itta Bena, Mississippi, he aims daily to "aspire to inspire before he expires." He and his wife Kathy Petty have four children, Ke'Ralos, R'Gnae, M'Chos, and Trentis. Petty regards himself as an avid disc golf player and enjoys writing and producing theater shows. He credits a host of achievements to successful communication, dedication, and a supportive team of staff, colleagues, mentors, and supervisors whom he salutes without hesitation.

Petty believes exponential growth occurs when individuals can see things through the lens of potential, not as they are. The change-embracing instructor cites Eleanor Roosevelt in offering a treasured inspirational quote, "The future belongs to those who believe in the beauty of their dreams." He hopes to leave the world in better shape than he found it by continuing on his mission of adequately educating students and connecting them to a world of knowledge. In his opinion, education today depicts, impacts, and influences the future.

The Cutrer mansion was built in 1916 by Memphis architect Bayard Cairnes for Clarksdale attorney J.W. Cutrer and his wife Blanche Clark Cutrer, daughter of Clarksdale's founder, John Clark. The dapper Jack Cutrer was very flamboyant and equally famous for his legendary parties and fiery politics. Not to be outdone, Blanche often threw extravagant yard parties and opulent masked balls, usually to the accompaniment of a full orchestra or swing band. Such events often attracted a young Tom Williams, who later became the celebrated playwright Tennessee Williams, to the Cutrer home as a child. Williams most likely came to the Cutrer Mansion on parish calls with his beloved grandfather, Rev. Walter Dakin. The Cutrers and their home, which they called Belvoir, inspired character names and settings in several of Tennessee Williams' plays including A Streetcar Named Desire, The Glass Menagerie, Orpheus Descending and Cat on a Hot Tin Roof.

Coahoma Community College acquired the 7,000 square foot masion soley, 2019 and 2020, but are actively looking for new partners for the Center as well as grant opportunities. The Center is still used today as a cultural and educational center that offers a variety of programs and events to the public.

The Coahoma County Higher Education Center is adjacent to the mansion. It encompasses a gymnasium/event center, a personal fitness center, a state of the art conferencing/training center, and a fullly equipped commercial Viking kitchen. There are plans to renovate the second floor of the Cutrer Mansion as soon as funding can be secured. However, the first floor of the Cutrer Mansion and the rest of the CCHEC campus are available to rent for weddings, receptions, events and conferences of all kinds. Come see us! We'd love to show you around.

Coahoma, Coahoma,
we kneel before thine altar,
In Reverence, in homage, in consecration strong;
Upon the earth where'er we tread
We never will thy name degrade.
We challenge wrong with never any dread.
We shall not be afraid.
Coahoma, Coahoma, our
aim is not to falter,
But to be brave in the good life to which we all belong.
Coahoma, Coahoma,
as though the sun were rising.
Thy precepts, thy guidance, will ever be our star;
As in the world we take our place
Our memories of thee remain,
We'll do our best to win the bitter race
And honor to retain.
Coahoma, Coahoma, thy sons are now arising
To the great call men of courage
We shed thy light afar.
Coahoma, Coahoma,
Our noble Alma Mater
We laud thee, we hail thee, with never ending praise;
The fortune of our future lives
We'll cast a ray of light on thee.
The shades of night will swiftly disappear
With thoughts of thee so near.
Coahoma, Coahoma, our
beacon of tomorrow
We will always shout thy glory
Our Alma Mater, dear.
